Deendaya Antyodaya Yojana –National Urban Livelihoods Mission ( DAY-NULM) is one of the flagship missions of the Ministry of Housing & Urban Affairs ( MoHUA), which works towards alleviation of urban poverty by creating sustainable livelihoods opportunities and infrastructure .

The Mission provides for engaging Community Organizers (COs) besides having Mission Management Units at National, State and City levels. Every functionary under the mission has designated role which helps in attaining the mission adversely and dampens their morale.

The Following Components of DAY NULM targets for the year 2019-20 has communicated to each ULB including Mission cities, the details as ;

- Social Mobilization & Institutional Development ( SM& ID)
- Employment Skill Training & Employment ( ESTP)
- Self Employment Programme & Bank Linkage ( SEP& BL)
- Shelter For Urban Homeless ( SUH )
- Support for Urban Street Vendor ( SUSV)
- Other MEPMA activities convergence related NUHM, Harithaharum as per the MEPMA circulars etc .

Hence the Additional Commissioner UCD ,GHMC all the Project Directors, MEPMA & UCD, GHMC it is directed to review the work assigned to MEPMA field staff of DMC, ADMC,TMC,COs and ensure that the MEPMA field is not engaged in activities other than DAY-NULM and MEPMA activities without approval of MEPMA Head office .
