In the reference cited, the under Secretary to the Govt. of India stated that as per the amended provision in clause 3.1 of the Mission Document, the States/UTs are also allowed to implement all or any of the components of the Mission in any other statutory town, based on the local capacity and requirement.

In the ref 2nd cited, the Director, NULM, has communicated the State target under Self Employment Programme for the year 2016-17 and requested to communicate to the SLBC convener banks.

Hence, It is decided to implement the Self Employment Programme in all towns irrespective of the size of population. The ULB wise targets and amount of credit/loan to be disbursed by the banks are finalized and enclosed as Annexure – I. The Timelines to be followed for implementation of SEP Programme activities is enclosed at Annexure – II.

It is requested to adhere to the timelines specified and the credit targets under Self Employment Programme for the year may be communicated to the Head Office and Lead Bank Manager requesting to convey the targets to the controllers of all banks.

Encl: Annexure – I & II
